- ▣ Schools, hospitals and housing services used as 'honey traps' alerting Social Services to vulnerable parents and children.
- ▣ With the aid of Police, children are physically removed - generally without paperwork. A punishment without crime.
- ▣ Subsequent allegations are fabricated to justify child removals - torturing parents with contact arrangements and court procedures., Destroying relationships, jobs, financial and housing situations in this process.
- ▣ Police admit falsification of criminal statistics to Justice Select Committee in November 2013, especially in relation to rape and sexual abuse cases.
- ▣ Should parents resist any conditions and restrictions imposed, they risk being criminalised with ultimate aim of deporting the parents and adopting the children.
